1963

Lt. Col. John H. Glenn, first U.S. man to orbit earth, smiled beside recovered capsule in a year full of pioneering successes in space navigation.

Victorious Sonny Liston stood over Floyd Patterson after the shortest heavyweight championship bout in history.

Former Gen. Edwin A. Walker escorted off University of Mississippi campus by U.S. Marshals as federal action upheld enrollment of James Meredith.

George Romney, elected governor of Michigan, (and family) were among the smiling new faces in politics after off-year elections.

Postmaster Gen. Edward Day inspected this map outlining the $1.5 million mail robbery at Plymouth, Massachusetts.

New York Yankees won the Series from San Francisco in spite of Chuck Hiller's fourth-game grand slammer.

Philharmonic Hall, first unit of New York's projected Lincoln Center for Performing Arts, opened in a blaze of light.

Steeple at Oregon State College of Education, Monmouth, Oregon, fell before hurricane-force winds which raked the West Coast in October causing major damage and communication breakdown.

U.S. and French officials gathered to welcome crated "Mona Lisa" as the priceless painting arrived in New York en route to a showing in Washington, D.C.'s National Gallery.

D E D I C A T I O N

To you, Mrs. Hagar, with sincere thanks and deepest appreciation, we dedicate this 1963 Waukeen. We will never forget your kindness and patience in working with us, and your unceasing efforts to make this Waukeen the greatest ever. You've been our driving force and guide, our friend and co-worker, and for this we salute you.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. McSweeney's Message...

As graduation day approaches, many of you no doubt have been thinking back over the past four years. With this, now comes the realization that this great day leaves you both joyous and sorrowful.

This is as it should be for those who have been your classmates for so many years must now go their different ways, you are now called upon to take your place in society.

Whichever road you take, we sincerely hope that the education and training you have received here will lead you to success and happiness.

As you approach this important place in your life, I personally want to thank you for your wonderful help and cooperation, and to all of you my hope for a very successful future.
